Fellow officers,

Our trial subscription for our MacToast Toastmaster Meetup.com page is up for renewal on March 4th.

At the last officers meeting all those attending agreed that we would try it for these three months. We have had quite a bit of success with it in attracting visitors and new members while getting out the word about our club. I believe we have signed up 2 new members directly related to this public relations outreach initiative. We will have 4 or more visitors at tomorrows meeting that have RSVP-ed on the site.

I would propose we continue it. Here is the page in case you have not seen it: www.meetup.com/Smryna-Vinings-MacToast-Toastmasters-Club.

The cost is $45 every three months. This might not seem like a lot but it is for our club. If we want to continue it we might have to increase club dues. Allen would have better insight into this. I believe in being pro-active rather than re-active so its up for discussion before now time lapses.

Patrick Carlson
